

A Trusted Family Owned Business Manufacturing in the USA for over 20 years. NAFTA Certificate of Origin Compliant

The owners of Longleaf Collection have been in business for over 21 years. It is a family owned business focused on relationships and build on the foundation of trust and integrity. The relationship from customer, to employee, to supplier is focused on building synergistic affiliations that are mutually beneficial and produce win-win outcomes.

The facility is located in the beautiful Sandhills region of Aberdeen, North Carolina . This is in the heart of the golf capital of the world, and home to the Longleaf Pine Tree.
<http://www.sandhillsonline.com/>
<http://www.sandhillsgolf.com/>

The owners of Longleaf Collection have over 75 years of combined manufacturing experience. The majority of this experience has been in engineering, metallurgy, quality assurance, and critical manufacturing processing.

During the last 21 years the owners of Longleaf Collection have been owned and are operating a commercial metallurgical concern specializing in heat treating processes and functional engineered coatings that address the needs of automotive, power tool, medical, military, and tool and die industries.

For more information on Thermal Metal Treating www.thermalmetal.com